Economic and Social History Society of Ireland Annual Conference 2017

Thursday 16 & Friday 17, November 2017
Central Bank of Ireland, Dublin

On 16 and 17 November 2017, the Annual Conference of the Economic and Social History Society will take place in the Central Bank of Ireland, Dublin. The broad theme of the meeting is “Globalisation, Identity and Prosperity in Irish History”, but submissions on other topics are also encouraged.

The keynote Connell Lecture will be delivered by Professor Kevin Hjortshøj O’Rourke, All Souls College, Oxford.

Prospective speakers should send a one-page abstract to rebecca.stuart@centralbank.ie, with subject ‘ESHSI Conference’ by Friday 15 September 2017. Notification of acceptance will be given by mid-October. Accepted papers will receive 30 minutes each (approx. 20 minutes for presentation and 10 minutes for discussion).

Further information on the conference will be provided on the Economic and Social History Society website: <http://www.eshsi.org/>.
